MR ANIL S DAVE for Petitioner No. 1

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 04/05/2002

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The present petition has been filed by the the petitioner - detenu who has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by the order dated 24/2/2002 passed by the Commissioner of Police, Surat City and she has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, he cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision in the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. I have heard learned advocate for the petitioner and also perused the material on record. According to learned advocate for the petitioner, the detaining authority has passed the detention order relying upon the four offences registered against the detenu under Prohibition Act. The learned advocate for the petitioner has further submitted thereafter, the petitioner made a detailed representation to the concerned authorities on 6/3/2002, which has been rejected by the concerned authority on 19/3/2002 and the decision of the said authority rejection of the representation of the petitioner was communicated to the petitioner and the petitioner received the same on 1/4/2002 through jail. In support of his arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner tenders the copy of the letter of the authority intimating the petitioner that his representation has been rejected by the State on 19/3/2002. The same is ordered to be taken on record. According to the learned advocate for the petitioner there is a delay in considering the representation of the petitioner which is unconstitutional. According to the learned advocate for the petitioner, there is a delay in deciding the representation of the petitioner and there is also delay in communicating the decision of the representation. In support of his say, the learned advocate for the petitioner has placed reliance upon the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in AIR 1981 SC 1126, in which the Honourable Supreme Court has held as under :-

"We would emphasise that it is the duty of the State to proceed to determine representations of the character above mentioned with the utmost expedition, which means that the matter must be taken up for consideration as soon as such a representation is received and dealt with continuously (unless it is absolutely necessary to wait for some assistance in connection with it) until a final decision is taken and communicated to the detenu. This not having been done in the present case we have no option but to declare the detention unconstitutional. We order accordingly, allow the appeal and direct that the appellant be set at liberty forthwith."

4. Since the detaining authority has not decided the representation of the petitioner promptly, in view of the above judgment relied upon by the learned advocate for the petitioner, the order of detention is illegal and the same cannot be sustained. Learned advocate for the petitioner does not press any other points.

5. In view of the above, the petition is allowed. The order of detention dated 24/2/2002 passed against the detenu is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu namely Smt.Guliben w/o Naginbhai Viththalbhai Patel is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly with no order as to costs. D.S. Permitted.
